Player receives 2 x yellow cards (in the same match) therefore the same player MUST receive 1 x red card. The count for the tournament for this player will be: 2 x yellow card accumulated which is added to the players total number of yellow cards for the tournament. The red card, in this situation, is not added to the overall total as the red card is a consequence of 2 x yellow cards. HOWEVER, the circumstances in which these cards were issued does not preclude or vacate the suspensions listed above. The proper suspensions from the list above will be implemented if warranted.

- 4.2. All cards will carry through ALL MATCHES, right up to and including the Final Match. Cards received in the final match will be carried over to the following season’s base, regional, and/or national program as per Chapter 5 – Suspensions.
- 4.3. The Disciplinary Committee and/or JOA has a duty to review any incident further at their discretion to ensure the appropriate suspension(s) are administered, in all circumstances. This will ensure each situation is dealt on its own merit and that the suspension meets the level of the action which led to the circumstance.
- 4.4. Reference Chapter 5 – Suspensions, for infractions that may be applied to any sport.

5. CHAMPIONSHIP FORMAT

- 5.1. All matches will be conducted in two (2) x forty-five (45) minute halves with a half time that shall not exceed fifteen (15) minutes.
- 5.2. The CAF Soccer Championship shall be conducted first as a single round-robin tournament, followed by a single elimination playoff. Matches in the round-robin will be played to the end of regulation time. Points will be awarded as follows during round-robin play;
 - a. Three (3) points for a win (regulation);
 - b. One (1) point for a tie (shootout win/loss); and
 - c. Zero (0) points for a regulation loss.
- 5.3. Should a tie exist following regulation time in round robin play, kicks from the penalty mark shall be taken immediately following the match to determine the winner of the match (IAW FIFA Kicks From the Penalty Mark procedures). No additional points shall be awarded for winning the shootout; the match will be recorded as a tie and each team shall be awarded one (1) point towards their round robin standings as per para 5.2.b.
- 5.4. All shoot-outs will occur from the Penalty Mark and shall be conducted IAW the FIFA Laws of the Game, Law 10, Determining the outcome of the match, kicks from the penalty mark procedures.

- 5.5. Upon completion of the round-robin, two semi-final matches will be played. The first (1st) place team will play the fourth (4th) place team and the second (2nd) place team will play the third (3rd) place team. The winner of each semi-final match will advance to the final match.
- 5.6. For semi-finals and final matches only, in the event of a tie after the regulation time, extra time will be played to break the tie as per para 7. If a tie still remains, after the extra time, shoot-out will be taken as per para 5.3.

6. EXTRA TIME

- 6.1. Competition/FIFA rules provide for two (2) further equal halves, not exceeding fifteen (15) minutes each in duration to determine the winner. The extra time must be played to completion regardless of how many goals are scored or when. If at the end of extra time the match is a shootout will take place to determine the winner.

7. TIE-BREAKING PROCEDURES

- 7.1. Ties in the final round-robin standings that affect advancement to the playoff shall be broken as follows:
- If two (2) teams are tied, the winner of the match played between the two (2) teams during the round-robin play, including the results from a shoot-out, shall advance to and/or be awarded the higher position, among the tied teams, in the playoff round;
 - If three (3) or more teams are tied, the team with the best win/loss record, in the round-robin matches played between the tied teams, including the results from a shootout, shall advance to and/or be awarded the higher position, among the tied teams, in the playoff round;

Note: After the completion of step 7.1.b, 7.1.c or 7.1.d, which determines the seeding/ranking of a team, if necessary, repeat the tie-breaking procedures from 7.1.a.

- c. If a tie still remains, each team's total goals scored shall be divided by total goals against during the entire round-robin tournament, excluding goals scored or surrendered during shootouts. The team with the highest quotient shall be awarded the higher position, among the tied teams.
- d. If a tie still remains, the team with the least amount of points received by yellow or red cards by the end of the round-robin tournament shall advance to and/or be awarded the higher position, among the tied teams. Points will be awarded as follows;
 - Yellow Card = One (1) point
 - Red Card (indirect) = Three (3) points (as a result of a second yellow card)
 - Red Card (direct) = Four (4) points
 - Yellow Card and Red Card (direct) = Five (5) points
- e. If a tie still remains, a coin toss will determine the team which advances to and/or is awarded the higher position, among the tied teams.

8. MATCH ABANDONMENT PROCEDURE

- 8.1. IAW CSA Lightning policy, a match may be abandon due to the risk of a lightening strike. The safety of the players, official, team officials and anyone else directly involved in the match, will be kept safe from any potential lightning strike or severe weather. The referee has the authority, IAW FIFA Laws of the Game, to stop the match and abandon the match. If this were to occur the results of the match are as follows:
 - a. If at a minimum 65% of the match has been played, of actual playing time (not to include the break in between halves) the match will be considered complete. The score, at the time the match is stopped, will be the official final score that will be recorded on the game sheet; and
 - b. If the minimum of 65% has not been played:
 - the match will be replayed in its entirety (if feasible) at a later date set by the organising committee; or
 - If a full match cannot be rescheduled, penalty kicks will be scheduled and will decide winner.
